Feast Day of Our Lady of Good Counsel

This feast is celebrated in the Catholic Church and is associated with many miracles attributed to the venerated image of Our Lady. The day is dedicated to prayer and reflection on the virtues of good counsel, invoking the intercession of Our Lady for guidance in difficult situations.

Records dating from the reign of Paul II (1464-1471) relate that the picture of Our Lady, called “La Madonna del Paradiso” appeared at Genazzano, a town 25 miles southeast of Rome, in the old church of Santa Maria.

Feast—April 26th

A novena is a prayer to be said for 9 days

“1 Our Father, 1 Hail Mary, 1 Glory Be”

The venerated icon itself, which is drawn on a thin scale of wall-plaster was observed to be hang suspended in the air without support

Devotion to Our Lady in Santa Maria sprang up at once. Pilgrims began to pour in and miracles began and continue at the shrine. In July, 1467, Pope Paul deputed two bishops to investigate the alleged wonder-working image, On November 17, 1682, the Pope Blessed Innocent XI had the pictured crowned with gold by the Vatican Basilica.

Look how beautiful the image of the Blessed Virgin and Child!
