SUPPORT RELEVANT RADIO 1050 AM AND 106.7 FM - YOUR CATHOLIC STATION!

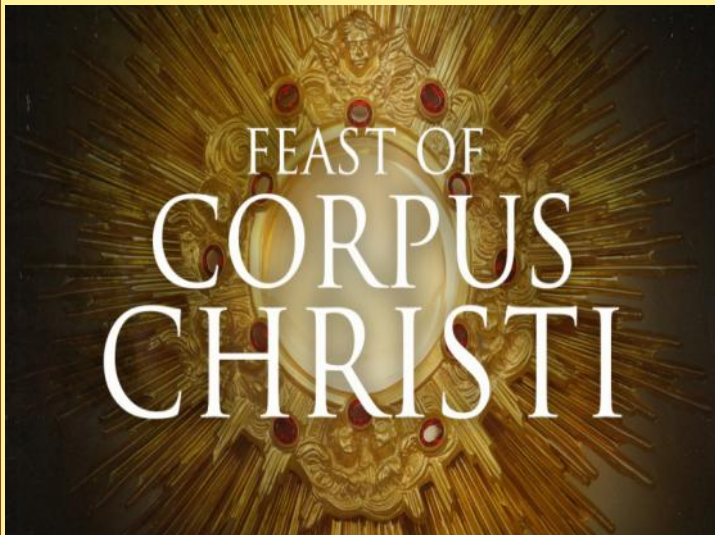

On Sunday, June 7th

The Catholic Church will celebrate Corpus Christi—the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ—a feast dedicated to honoring the “Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist”

Corpus Christi is a joyful celebration of the belief that Jesus Christ is truly present, body, blood, soul and divinity, in the Eucharist

It affirms the Church’s teaching on transubstantiation—the bread and wine become the body and blood of Christ during Mass. The feast is rooted in the Eucharistic mystery, where Christ offers himself “in remembrance of me” (Luke 22:19) making his one sacrifice of Calvary sacramentally present for the forgiveness of sins

Why is it celebrated?

To adore and profess the Eucharistic Lord, to deepen Eucharistic devotion, encouraging the faithful to spend more time in prayer and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Trust Jesus to care for your needs.

Stay close to Him in the Eucharist. Live as part of one body in love.

Corpus Christi reminds believers that Jesus remains present with them “always, to the end of the age” through the Eucharist
