PLEASE PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS ON THE BACK OF THE BULLETIN

The Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time emphasizes trust in God amid fear, persecution, and uncertainty.

Courage in Faith

God stays with His people in times of fear and trouble. Jesus tells His followers not to be afraid because God cares deeply for them. Through Jesus, grace and new life overcome sin.

This is a time in which to deepen our understanding of Christ's teachings and to live them out in daily life.

Jeremiah 20:10-13

Jeremiah speaks of being surrounded by enemies and even friends who watch for his downfall. Despite this, he declares that the Lord is with him and will deliver him from evil men. This passage highlights "faith in God's protection" even in the face of rejection and fear. Jeremiah faces betrayal and threats but proclaims confidence in God, "a mighty champion, who rescues the poor from the wicked. Jesus urges the disciples: "Fear no one." Nothing hidden will remain concealed, and God's care extends even to the smallest details of their lives. Disciples must proclaim the truth boldly and acknowledge Christ before others.

The Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time thus centers on steadfast faith in God's presence and protect.

St. Dymphna

Great wonder-worker in every affliction of mind and body, I humbly implore your powerful intercession with Jesus, through Mary, the Health of the Sick, in my present need.

Speak and live the truth even when it is difficult, as Jesus did.

Pray daily for courage and to be filled with God's peace.

Encourage others who are struggling or afraid

Reject hypocrisy and fear-driven living, choosing authenticity and faith

*Commit to justice, mercy, and humility, even when it costs us, because God's vision is for a better world
Amen!*
