My Dear Family, CTK,

I want to wish you a happy Feast of Christ the King. It's our Parish feast and its the feast of the entire Christian Catholic family in the world. May Christ Our King and Savior Reign in our hearts, that we may come under His rule.

On Thursday, November 26th, we will be celebrating our Thanksgiving Day. As many gather around tables this Thanksgiving with families, friends and loved ones, let's take a moment to reflect on what truly matters. Yes, as this holiday marks with wonderful traditions, food, and of course football, at its heart, Thanksgiving is about gratitude and connection. It's a time to appreciate the people in our lives and bonds that bring us closer together.

This realization became especially clear to me as I spent my holiday with my loved ones at home in Sri Lanka. The love that you as a Parish had for me, the way you sent me with lots of love and donations, the prayers that accompanied, waiting for me to come back, they all meant the world to me. Back in my country, the love that I received, the connections that I renewed, the care that was so generously poured into my life- they really moved me. It wasn't just good food and fun times that had mattered most. But the connection they represented, the love, memories, and thoughtfulness...these were the poignant reminder of what we all truly crave most deeply: to feel seen, valued, and loved. I thank God for all these.

As we approach 2026 Thanksgiving, I think about how this yearning for connection resonates with so many of us. We live in a fast-paced world, where communication and connections are limited to a brief call or a text message. We get caught up in many things and Thanksgiving comes and goes even before we could realize it. May I ask you, stop, take the time, and value every second we spend with our loved ones. Feel the presence of each other, take time to share memories, have meaningful and laughter filled conversations, enjoy the meal. The best dish you can bring to the table is your happy, thoughtful and hungry self. These gestures, small as they seem, can break through the noise of our daily lives and remind us of what truly matters: the people we hold dear and the moments that bring us closer. Keep party politics out of your conversation.

Gratitude isn't just about counting our blessings; it's about creating them for others, especially for our loved ones.

Thanksgiving is a chance to reflect on the many ways we've been supported and to honor those who have been part of our journey. It's a moment to pay it forward- to take a moment to express our thanks, to show someone they are loved, to remind them they are not alone.

So, My dear Family, May your Thanksgiving be filled with warmth, love, and meaningful connection.

God Bless You

~Father Joseph~

-Pagina Del Pastor – 22 de Noviembre de 2026-

Mi querida familia de la iglesia Cristo El Rey,

Quiero desearles una feliz «fiesta de Cristo Rey». Es la fiesta de nuestra parroquia y, a la vez, la fiesta de toda la familia cristiana católica en el mundo.Que Cristo, nuestro Rey y Salvador, reine en nuestros corazones, para que nos acojamos a su dominio.El Jueves 26 de Noviembre celebraremos el Día de Acción de Gracias. Mientras muchos se reúnen alrededor de la mesa en este Día de Acción de Gracias con sus familias, amigos y seres queridos, dediquemos un momento a reflexionar sobre lo que realmente importa.Sí, ya que esta festividad se caracteriza por sus maravillosas tradiciones, su comida y, por supuesto, el fútbol como elemento central. El Día de Acción de Gracias tiene que ver con la gratitud y la conexión. Es un momento para valorar a las personas que forman parte de nuestra vida y los vínculos que nos acercan más. Esta revelación se me hizo especialmente patente mientras pasaba mis vacaciones con mis seres queridos en casa, en Sri Lanka. El cariño que ustedes, como parroquia, me brindaron; la forma en que me despidieron —con tanto amor y donaciones—; las oraciones que me acompañaron y la espera de mi regreso: todo eso significó muchísimo para mí. De vuelta en mi país, el cariño que recibí, los vínculos que retomé y el cuidado que se volcó con tanta generosidad en mi vida me conmovieron profundamente. No se trató solo de disfrutar de buena comida y buenos momentos; lo que más importó fue que yo fui importante para los demás. Pero la conexión que representaban —el amor, los recuerdos y la consideración— constituían el conmovedor vestigio de aquello que, en el fondo, todos anhelamos con mayor intensidad: sentirnos vistos, valorados y amados. Doy gracias a Dios por todo esto. A medida que nos acercamos al Día de Acción de Gracias de 2026, reflexiono sobre cómo este anhelo de conexión resuena en muchos de nosotros. Vivimos en un mundo acelerado, donde las comunicaciones y las conexiones se limitan a una breve llamada o a un mensaje de texto. A veces nos vemos envueltos en tantas cosas que el Día de Acción de Gracias llega y se va antes de que nos demos cuenta. Te invito a hacer una pausa, a tomarte un tiempo y a valorar cada segundo que pasamos con nuestros seres queridos. Sientan la presencia de los demás, tómense el tiempo para compartir recuerdos, mantengan conversaciones significativas y llenas de risas, y disfruten de la comida. Lo mejor que puedes aportar es tu versión más alegre, atenta y con ganas de disfrutar. Estos gestos —tu actitud alegre, considerada y entusiasta— son lo más valioso que puedes ofrecer. Estos gestos, por pequeños que parezcan, pueden abrirse paso entre el ruido de nuestra vida cotidiana y recordarnos lo que realmente importa: las personas a las que queremos y los momentos que nos acercan. Mantén la política partidista fuera de tus conversaciones. La gratitud no consiste solo en contar nuestras bendiciones; se trata de crearlas para los demás, especialmente para nuestros seres queridos. El Día de Acción de Gracias es una oportunidad para reflexionar sobre las muchas formas en que hemos recibido apoyo y para honrar a quienes han formado parte de nuestro camino. Es un momento para retribuir el bien recibido, para tomarnos un instante y expresar nuestro agradecimiento, para demostrarle a alguien que se le quiere y recordarle que no está solo.Así que, mi querida familia, que su Día de Acción de Gracias esté lleno de calidez, amor y conexiones significativas.

¡FELIZ DÍA DE ACCIÓN DE GRACIAS!

Que Dios te bendiga

-Advent Wreath-November 22, 2026-

When is the first candle of the Advent Wreath placed and what does it mean? Did you know that the first candle of the Advent wreath has a very special meaning and marks the beginning of a time of hope, reflection and preparation of Christmas?

As we begin this first Sunday of Advent, I'm going to tell you when you should light it and what it represents spiritually in our home. The first candle of the Advent wreath is lit on the first Sunday of Advent, which is the beginning of the four weeks of preparation to celebrate the birth of Baby Jesus in this year 2026. The first Sunday of Advent will be November 29th. That is the date when families can gather around their wreath and light the first candle traditionally. This first candle is purple. That within the Christian tradition represents spiritual preparation, reflection, repentance, and the hope of renewing our faith. But what does lighting this first light mean? The first candle represents Hope. It's an invitation, not to lose faith even when we go through difficult times, where there are concerns in our family or when we feel that things aren't going as we expected. The light reminds us that we can always start over that after moments of darkness. A time of light can come, and that we must keep our hearts prepared to receive Jesus. It's also traditionally known as the candle of prophecy or hope because it recalls the promises announced about the Savior's arrival. How can you carry out this moment at home on the first Sunday of Advent? Gather your family around the wreath, place the wreath in a special spot and light only the first candle. You can accompany this moment with a prayer giving thanks for life, for family, and asking that faith, unity, and hope never be lacking in your home. Remember that the wreath has four main candles that are lit progressively each Sunday until Christmas. Thus each new light symbolically bring us closer to the birth of the child of God and something very beautiful is that you don't need an expensive wreath or grand decorations to live this tradition. What's truly important is the meaning of this moment, and the faith with which you share it with your loved ones. May the first Advent candle be a reminder that Hope should never go out in our hearts, and that the light of Jesus illuminates every corner of our home. And do you usually place the Advent wreath in your house? Did you already know that the first candle represents hope?

Yes, My dear Family of CTK, let every family gather around this wreath and let the parents take every effort to bring the light, hope, and love of Christmas this 2026.

God Bless You

~Father Joseph~

-Corona de Adviento-22 de Noviembre de 2026-

¿Cuándo se coloca la primera vela de la corona de Adviento y qué significa? ¿Sabías que la primera vela de la corona de Adviento tiene un significado muy especial y marca el inicio de un tiempo de esperanza, reflexión y preparación para la Navidad?

Al comenzar este primer domingo de Adviento, les explicaré cuándo deben encenderla y qué representa espiritualmente en nuestro hogar. La primera vela de la corona de Adviento se enciende el primer domingo de Adviento, el cual marca el inicio de las cuatro semanas de preparación para celebrar el nacimiento del Niño Jesús en este año 2026. El primer domingo de Adviento será el 29 de noviembre. Es la fecha en la que las familias pueden reunirse alrededor de su corona y encender, siguiendo la tradición, la primera vela. Esta primera vela es de color morado. Dentro de la tradición cristiana, esto representa preparación espiritual, reflexión, arrepentimiento y la esperanza de renovar nuestra fe. Pero, ¿qué significa encender esta primera luz? La primera vela representa la Esperanza. Es una invitación a no perder la fe, incluso cuando las cosas no suceden como esperábamos. Su luz nos recuerda que, aun en medio de la oscuridad, siempre es posible volver a empezar. Puede llegar un tiempo de luz, y debemos mantener nuestros corazones preparados para recibir a Jesús. También se le conoce tradicionalmente como la vela de la profecía o de la esperanza, ya que recuerda las promesas anunciadas sobre la llegada del Salvador.

¿Cómo pueden vivir este momento en casa el primer domingo de Adviento? Reúnan a la familia alrededor de la corona, colóquenla en un lugar especial y enciendan únicamente la primera vela. Puedes acompañar este momento con una oración en la que des gracias por la vida y por la familia, y pidas que en tu hogar nunca falten la fe, la unidad y la esperanza. Recuerda que la corona tiene cuatro velas principales que se encienden progresivamente cada domingo hasta la Navidad. Así, cada nueva luz nos acerca simbólicamente al nacimiento del hijo de Dios; y algo muy hermoso es que no hace falta una corona costosa ni grandes adornos para vivir esta tradición.

Lo verdaderamente importante es el significado de este momento, y la fe con la que lo compartes con tus seres queridos. Que la primera vela de Adviento sea un recordatorio de que la esperanza nunca debe apagarse en nuestros corazones, y de que la luz de Jesús ilumina cada rincón de nuestro hogar.

¿Y sueles colocar la corona de Adviento en tu casa? ¿Sabías ya que la primera vela representa la esperanza? Sí, mi querida familia de Cristo Rey: reúnanse todos en torno a esta corona, y que los padres se esfuercen al máximo por llevar la luz, la esperanza y el amor de la Navidad en este año 2026.

Que Dios te bendiga

~Padre Joseph~

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe
Also known as Christ the King Sunday or the Feast of Christ the King.
It is the final Sunday of the liturgical year in the Roman Catholic Church and several other Christian traditions
It is celebrated on the last Sunday of Ordinary Time, immediately preceding the first Sunday of Advent
Pope Pius XI instituted this feast in 1925 to respond to growing secularism and atheism. He recognized that attempting to "thrust Jesus Christ and his holy law" out of public life would result in continuing discord among people and nations. This solemnity reminds us that while governments come and go, Christ reigns as King forever. Christ's kingship is rooted in the Church's teaching on the Incarnation. Jesus is fully God and fully man. He is both the divine Lord and who suffered and died on the Cross. One person of the Trinity unites himself to human nature and reigns over all creation as the Incarnate Son of God. The Church acknowledges the reign of Christ, not only privately, but publicly.
This solemnity encourages us to celebrate and live out our faith in public.

Solemnidad de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo~
También conocido como el Domingo de Cristo Rey o la solemnidad de Cristo Rey. Es el último Domingo del año litúrgico en la Iglesia católica romana y en otras tradiciones cristianas.Se celebra el último Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, inmediatamente anterior al primer Domingo de Adviento.
El Papa Pío XI instituyó esta fiesta en 1925 para responder al creciente secularismo y ateísmo. Reconoció que intentar «excluir a Jesucristo y a su santa ley» de la vida pública daría lugar a una discordia continua entre los pueblos y las naciones. Esta solemnidad nos recuerda que, si bien los gobiernos pasan, Cristo reina como Rey para siempre. Él es, a la vez, el Señor divino y aquel que sufrió y murió en la Cruz. La solemnidad nos anima a celebrar y vivir nuestra fe en público.

Prayer to Christ the King

Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, we adore You and proclaim You as our Lord and King.
May Your Kingdom of truth, justice, love, and peace reign in our hearts, in our families, in our Church, and in the whole world.
Give us the grace to serve You faithfully, to follow Your will, and to be true witnesses of Your Kingdom here on earth.
Reign, O Christ, in our minds, in our hearts, and in our lives, now and forever.
Amen.

Is God Calling you to a Vocation in Carmel?

The Discalced Carmelites are a Roman Catholic religious community of priests, nuns, brother, deacons and laity serving the Church through live of contemplative prayer and ministry in a fraternal setting.

Members of the Secular Order of Discalced Carmelites (OCDS) are faithful members of the Catholic Church who are called by the Holy Spirit to live in allegiance to Jesus Christ through a friendship with the one we know loves us.

Under the protection of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, in the biblical tradition of the prophet Elijah and inspired by the teachings of the Carmelite Saints, especially Teresa of Avila, Therese of Lisieux and John of the Cross, they seek to deepen their Christian commitment received in baptism while living their vocations "in the world" rather than in a monastery.

Our Carmelite Community will be providing a presentation for all of you to come and see at Christ the King Church at 6:30 pm on December 7, 2026 at the Queen of Heaven Room.

Join us on our Ascent of Mount Carmel!
